Feast of the Epiphany

VISIT US AT LIGUORI.ORG

January 8, 2012

dear Padre

When is Epiphany?

When did we stop celebrating the Epiphany on January 6? Does that affect the length of the octave of Christmas?

Kelly

Dear Kelly,

The Code of Canon Law says that Sundays are to be “observed as the foremost holy day of obligation in the universal Church” (1246). That canon also allows national conferences of bishops to “abolish certain holy days of obligation or transfer them to a Sunday.”

In November 1983, the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops approved the transfer of the solemnity of the Epiphany (January 6) to the first Sunday after January 1. It was reviewed by the Holy See (Vatican) and promulgated in March 1984.

Liturgical celebrations are distinguished as solemnities, feasts, and memorials according to their importance. The two greatest solemnities, Easter and Christmas, continue for an octave (eight days). Since the octave of Christmas runs from December 25 to January 1 (the solemnity of Mary, the Holy Mother of God), it’s not affected by the transfer of the Epiphany celebration.

Liturgically, the days after January 1 through the Baptism of the Lord are part of the season of Christmas even though they’re not part of the octave of Christmas.

Byron Miller, CSSR
sundaybulletins@liguori.org

You’re sitting in a lawyer’s office for the reading of your parents’ will. You expect to be splitting your inheritance with your siblings, but then you’re told you’ll also be sharing it with someone unrelated to you—someone you find quite distasteful.

Wouldn’t you be shocked? speechless? furious? That’s exactly what happened to the first followers of Christ, who were Jewish. God’s chosen people, they believed that Christ came to redeem the children of Israel. And indeed he did. But as we hear today from Saint Paul, Christ also came for the Gentiles—the non-Jews. Saint Paul writes, “The Gentiles are coheirs, members of the same body, and copartners in the promise in Christ Jesus.” This was difficult for Jesus’ Jewish followers to absorb. The Gentiles were not related to the Jews by bloodline, so how could they also be chosen by God for Christ?

The Gospel story of the Magi also brought home this truth. The magi were Gentiles, and their coming signaled that Jesus was a light to all nations, not just Israel.

This message of inclusivity was hard for Jesus’ Jewish followers to hear, and it’s difficult to hear today. How much time do Christians spend bickering among ourselves, labeling each other “conservative” or “liberal” and demonizing those we consider “less Christian”?

Today’s feast demands better of us. Until we give up the infighting, we’re shrouded in darkness. Epiphany is about celebrating the light that Jesus is for all, and the light we Christians are called to be—together, as coheirs, copartners, and brothers and sisters in Christ.

Catholics Come Home You are Missed

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

Thank you for such a warm welcome during these first five months of my sacred priesthood. It has been a joy to share them and my faith experiences with you over a meal, at the school, in the hospital, at mass, and/or in the confessional.

What great opportunities there are to give thanks to God for the many blessings of life, to share memories and stories of the past year, but also to evangelize, speak of our faith and invite those we encounter to rediscover and/or grow in their faith as Catholics.

Starting January 23rd in St. Andrew Hall, we will begin our parish-wide Catholics Come Home Program that will take place from 7:00 p.m.—9:00 p.m. over 6 consecutive Mondays. I ask that you reach out to someone you encounter regularly that has lost faith in Christ and His Church and invite them back to our parish or a neighboring parish, putting them in contact with our program or other programs in their areas. For the program at St. Gregory the Great Church, please call the parish office at 843-815-3100 to register.

If you are a Catholic who has been away from the church for whatever reason, consider joining this program and see if you might be called to come home and rejoin your parish family.

As you know much information is found today on the Internet. A helpful website to point out is www.CatholicsComeHome.org.

May God bless you and your families in this wonderful season of Christmas!

SPREADING THE WORD ABOUT JESUS

What: Adult Workshop
Who: Catechists, Parishioners and Friends
When: Saturday, January 28, 2012, 9:30 - 11:30 a.m.
Where: St. Andrew Hall, 222 Pinckney Colony Road, Bluffton, SC
Presenter: Sister Pamela Smith, SSCM

Pope John Paul II, Pope Benedict, and bishops all over the world have been talking in recent years about the need for a "new evangelization." They, as well as the most glitzy TV preachers and pastors of mega-churches, realize that even though many people describe themselves as "spiritual" or "religious" there's a huge void. What often seems to be missing is a real-live sense of who Jesus is, how he still acts, and what he teaches.

Our workshop will talk about the various ways in which adults can help spread the Good News about salvation, discipleship, and faith community. There will also be segments on styles and methods of catechesis--that is, the teaching we do once people pass "go" in terms of the invitation to be an active follower of Christ. Please contact the Parish Office (815-3100) by January 24th and leave your name and telephone if you will be joining us.

PS. Certificates for catechists, youth ministers, and Catholic school teachers will be distributed at the end of the workshop.

Lector Training Session

There will be a Lector Training Session for anyone wishing to become a Lector and all present Lectors after the 8:30 a.m. Mass on January 10th and Sunday, January 15th after the 11:00 a.m. Mass. Fr. David will be present and looks forward to personally meeting each of you. All are EXPECTED to attend ONE of the sessions. Thank you for sharing your time and talent.

Welcome!

To these new members of our parish family who recently registered!

Catholic Book Club

The next meeting of the Catholic Book Club, open to any reader who wishes to attend, will be Friday, January 20. The featured book for the month is Todd Burpo's acclaimed "Heaven Is for Real." The book, first on non-fiction best-selling lists for weeks, tells of the experience of heaven which Burpo's young son had in a near-death experience. A unique feature of this month's book club meeting will be the involvement of St. Gregory's fourth graders in the discussion with the adults who are attending. Burpo's book has gained national attention with television, radio, and internet interviews. The book has also elicited theological comment and critique. Join the Club at 9:30 a.m. in the school library.

St. Gianna Respect Life Committee

Sunday, January 8th, is the annual Rally for Life sponsored by the Hilton Head Citizens for Life. It will be held on Route 278 in front of St. Francis Thrift Shop. This hour long rally begins at 2 p.m. and is a prayerful and peaceful gathering with participants holding signs and 52 white crosses, symbolic of the 52 million babies surgically aborted since 1973. The event will be held, rain or shine. Please try to wear something red. For information, call Bill Mullane, 342-5789.

On Saturday, January 14th, a group from our committee will be driving to Columbia to take part in our statewide Stand Up for Life. We will carpool from SGG, leaving about 8:00 a.m. Come hear Abby Johnson's amazing testimony of her journey from running a Planned Parenthood Abortion Business to becoming a leading defender of innocent life. Please call Barbara Grim 705-7534 if you are interested in going and/or driving.

All Parishioners are invited to remain after the 11:00 a.m. Mass on Sunday, January 22, to say a Rosary for the intention of Respect for Life and an end to abortion. The Rosary will be led by members of the St. Gianna Respect Life Committee.

On Monday, January 23, the annual March for Life will be held in Washington, D.C. to commemorate the 1973 Roe v Wade US Supreme Court decision which has led to over 52 million abortions, and continued disregard for the sanctity of life in the laws of our land, and the hearts of her people. Persons interested in attending and in search of bus transportation should call Kathy Shumugge, Office of Family Life coordinator for further information, at 803-547-5063, or at familifecoe@earthlink.net

Empowering families to come together and communicate about life issues, chastity and God's gift of sexuality

Do You Need Help in Talking to Your Child About Chastity?

Would you like to jump-start communication with your son or daughter? Do you need help in talking to your child about chastity, sexuality, marriage, dating and other important topics? Would you like to spend time with other families who share your values and want the best for their children? Would you like to do all this in an environment that is relaxed, fun, and respects the dignity of everyone present?

If you answered "yes" to any of these questions and you're the parent of an 8th grade child, we encourage you to register for the Real Love & Real Life parent-child program, to be held at Saint Gregory the Great Parish School building on Friday, January 27, 2012 from 6:45 p.m. to 9:15 p.m. and Saturday, January 28, 2012 from 8:45 a. m. to 4:00 p.m. This fun and informative program is for parents to attend with your 8th grader. You'll see and hear skits, video clips and informative presenters. You can also participate in group breakout sessions and interactive games. Topics include: communication skills, chastity, dating and marriage, true self worth, fertility appreciation, friendships and lots more. Most importantly, this program gives you focused time with your child to talk about some of the most important topics in life.

The Real Love & Real Life program is presented by Family Honor, a national organization that creates opportunities and provides tools to help parents and children connect and communicate about important life issues, with a special focus on God's gift of sexuality. Pre-registration is required. For more information, call Mary Moran at (843) 705-5524 or MMoran5@sc.rr.com

Saint Vincent de Paul Conference

SGG has an established and functioning Saint Vincent de Paul Conference. Their goal is to serve the poor and needy. Each request will be followed with a visit. Two Vincentians will listen to the clients needs and try to help them. Their toll free number is 866-324-6135. Please allow 24 hours for a return call.

Financial assistance will no longer be given at the parish office.

St. Vincent de Paul Society is a 501(c)-3 non-profit charitable organization. All contributions and bequests are tax deductible. Please speak to your accountant for details.

Meetings are the 1st Saturday at 9:30 a.m. in the Pinckney Room at St. Andrew Hall. Newcomers are always welcome.

DOMINGO 8 DE ENERO "LA EPIFANIA DEL SEÑOR"

Después de los efectos devastadores del pecado y de la oscuridad en que quedo sumida la humanidad, y tras siglos de preparación, guerras, divisiones, exilios y dominaciones extranjeras, finalmente se manifestaba a las naciones el eterno Hijo de Dios. Así amaneció la luz de la salvación sobre la tierra, y los sabios de tierras lejanas reconocieron a Aquel en quien reside toda la sabiduría, el dominio y el poder y le rindieron honor.

Los reyes sabios venidos del Oriente salieron de la comodidad de sus reinos, fascinados por el nuevo Rey que nacía. ¿Qué fue lo que les hizo abandonar sus palacios y emprender semejante travesía? Solo la obra de Dios, que los movió a reconocer quien era Aquel a quien venían a adorar.

Los Padres de la Iglesia han afirmado que los regalos que portaban los sabios revelaban la gran importancia de este Niño: El oro era tributo de los reyes; el incienso se ofrecía como alabanza a Dios, y la mirra era un ungüento medicinal para aliviar los dolores. Estos tres regalos fueron dados a Jesús, porque en su condición de verdadero Dios y verdadero hombre, Él había recibido toda autoridad y dominio como Rey y Señor. Ofreciéndole estos tres regalos, los reyes magos reconocieron la autoridad de Jesús, su divinidad y el hecho de que la salvación del mundo, tan largamente esperada, solo vendría mediante su pasión y su muerte.

¡Que inmensamente fructífero resulto ser el viaje de estos magos! Tras su visita, generación tras generación de reyes y sabios han inclinado la cabeza ante el humilde Niño de Nazaret. Hombres y mujeres de todas las épocas han depositado sus tesoros a los pies de Cristo renunciando a los aparentes caudales de este mundo para abrazar el verdadero tesoro que se revela en el arrepentimiento, la fe y la humildad.

"Señor, Salvador del mundo, queremos imitar la fe y la confianza de los primeros sabios. Espíritu Santo, permítenos ver a Cristo, te rogamos, y ayúdanos a poner las riquezas de nuestro corazón a los pies de Jesús y aceptar su salvación y su misericordia."

¿DESEA UNA CITA CON EL PADRE CESAR?

Si usted desea hacer una cita para hablar con el Padre Cesar, por favor llame a Dee al 815-3100, ext. 234 para coordinar el horario.

SAVE THE DATE SGG ANNUAL DINNER DANCE

The date for the Saint Gregory the Great Annual Dinner Dance has been changed for 2012. Father Cellini and the Committee have addressed the number of events occurring during the first few months of the year and concluded that the Annual Dinner Dance should be schedule for the Fall. Therefore, we have reserved Hampton Hall again and will be having the event on October 6, 2012. The Committee is planning this Dinner Dance as a fundraiser for the St. Vincent de Paul Society and hoping that with the date change we will have a larger number of parishioners able to attend. Please check the bulletin for more information as the date gets closer to this wonderful event.

2012 Olympic Dinner Dance Tickets

We are thrilled to announce the release of ticket sales for our 2012 Olympics Dinner Dance to be held on February 11, 2012 at Hampton Hall Clubhouse! There will be a Silent and Live Auction, Cash Bar, Dinner and a live performance by The Spike Ivory Band!!! The price is only $55.00 per ticket. There are only 360 tickets to be sold, so buy your tickets early before they sell out completely!

We look forward to seeing all of you at Saint Gregory the Great Catholic School's fourth annual fundraiser. If you would like to purchase tickets or have any questions, please visit the school office or feel free to contact us. Cyndi DeTurrus 757-6499, 263-0714 or email jcyn1016@aol.com. Joellene Kenyon 815-2123, 368-0220 or email at joellenek@yahoo.com.

If any local business or Parishioner would like to help the school by sponsoring this fantastic event, please contact Tricia Michael at (843)290-6487
